Activity description :

In order for prisoners to feel social acceptance and care, we cooperate with Miaoli Branch of Rehabilitation Protection Association to handle this event. On the day of the event, the deputy head of Miaoli County, the director of the Miaoli Branch of the Rehabilitation and Protection Association, the Association of Honor Guardians, the Association for the Protection of Victims of Victims, the Judicial Volunteers Association, the International Lions Club, the National Salvation Miaoli Youth League Committee, Legal Aid Foundation, Miaoli Guests and groups such as the Employment Center are visiting the prison to care about the host.

The event begins with international standard dance-Cha Cha. The graceful dance was applauded by the audience. Director Liu of our institute thanked the guests for coming and gave practical examples to encourage the host to reform and cultivate a healthy body. The deputy head of Miaoli County and the director of the Social Affairs Department also addressed the host and encouraged them. Chairman Qiu Jianmin, Chairman of the Association of Honor Watchers, presented the seasonal citrus to the institute, and Director Liu also presented a certificate of appreciation. Thanks to the public for their love and care for the host.

The activity is very rich. First of all, our inmates sang the Hakka songs "Yong Tonghua" and "Gong Xi Fa Cai". Next, there are saxophone performances, singing performances, dance performances, and a dance show combining the two. Our host is also invited to the stage to participate in chorus and dance. And all the guests also participated in the drive singing activity. The atmosphere was very warm. The event ended with a chorus of "Congratulations".
