If the obligor or his family member was the victim of the derailment accident of Taroko Express on April 2, all branches of AEA will adopt lenient measures on the enforcement and provide adequate assistance for them to help them to get over the difficulties and the sorrowful incidents. Thanks for actively participating in the communication bidding. The public on-site venues cooperated and agreed with temperature checking and the wearing of masks. Therefore, the “joint auction held on the “first” “Tuesday” of every month, starting at “3” p.m.” resulted well.
