

Family Day Gathering for the Juvenile Delinquents

The Taichung Juvenile Detention, Ministry of Justice, held a family day gathering for the juvenile delinquents on 2 20 2025 and arranged professional counseling on parental education for the juvenile delinquents and their parents. This event is expected to allow the juvenile delinquents and families learn and share the ways of getting along with each other and the points of attention. Related social resources were also provided. This event was concluded in harmonious dialogues between the juvenile delinquents and their families with the participation of 4 juvenile delinquents and 5 family members.

