

Karaoke Contest for Edification and to Relieve Stress

There are many ways to express emotions, including writing, drawing, or sending cards, but singing is the most direct way to touch people's hearts. The Edification and Education Section selected the eve of Mother's Day to hold a karaoke contest, so that most inmates can be relieved of their worries and express their thoughts for their mother through singing.

The event was held in the auditorium of Zhong Ward at 2:00 P.M. on April 24th, 2017 (Monday). Wards and workshops were represented by 16 inmates in a competitive contest. Secretary Tseng Chih-Hsun hosted the event and formed a judge panel with section chiefs, guaranteeing a fair contest.

The event was successfully concluded after each of the 16 inmates went on stage to sing. The winner was Xiao-4-Gong inmate No.1597 Chen ○-Wan, who sang “Bu Tong Tian Guang” by Harry Lin. We hope that this event will achieve edification through a symbolic appeal, cleansing the soul and moulding their temperament, so that inmates willing to repent and make improvement will be given a stage for success.
