

Magic Rock in Taichung Prison – Taichung City Honorary Probation Officer Association Lets Chang E Fly

Thinking of family members and showing care during the holidays is a traditional virtue of Taiwan. To let inmates who miss their family to feel the lively atmosphere of Mid-Autumn Festival, Taichung City Honorary Probation Officer Association worked together with Lion Clubs International 300-C2 Governor's Office and Lion Clubs of Dadu, Dafeng, Bainian, and Wuqi Port to hold the "Magic Rock – Let Chang E Fly Care Activity" to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival in advance.

The event was held in the auditorium of the Zhong Ward of Taichung Prison at 14:00 on September 20th, 2017 (Wednesday). Warden Huang Wei-Hsien personally hosted the event, which was attended by nearly 100 distinguished guests, including Chang Hung-Mou, Chief Inspector at Taichung District Prosecutors Office, Liu Hsin-Ming, Chairman of Taichung City Honorary Probation Officer Association, officials at each level, and chairmen of Lions Clubs. Taichung Prison specially arranged the Western Music Club and Sunlight Choir of Ai Ward Workshop 7 and the Drum Club of Ai Ward Workshop 2 to perform on stage and welcome the guests. The Taichung City Honorary Probation Officer Association not only arranged old song signing, but also a dance performance by showgirls. Besides achieving education through entertainment via music and dance performance, the event also aims to let inmates feel society's care and warmth, and hopes that inmates will discover themselves and introspect while having fun to achieve education and edification.

At the end of the event, besides awarding a bonus and certificate of appreciation, the guests were given a tour of the Talent Workshop, Lacquerware Workshop and Art Gallery of Xiao Ward, showing the proud education and edification results of Taichung Prison, the perfect ending to this care activity.
